

BSO VIOLIST, MICHAEL ZARETSKY IN CONCERT
SUNDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 18, 2007 – 3:30 PM
TEMPLE EMANUEL – REISMAN HALL
385 WARD STREET
NEWTON, MA 02459

The Music Committee of Temple Emanuel is pleased to present Michael Zaretsky, virtuoso violist of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, in concert. In a program featuring compositions by Brahms, Beethoven and Mozart, Mr. Zaretsky will be accompanied by three exquisitely talented chamber players: Alexandre Lecarme, cello; Artur Lukomyansky, clarinet; and Toma Popovici, piano.

A member of the BSO for 33 years, Mr. Zaretsky regularly plays solo recitals and chamber music throughout the U.S. A faculty member at Boston University and the Longy School of Music, he also performs regularly in Israel, Japan, and Mexico, as well as in Russia and Greece.

Mr. Zaretsky has made four highly acclaimed recordings, the most recent of which – J. S. Bach's Six Cello Suites – was recorded at Boston Symphony Hall in December 2004. In 2006, film composer and Boston Pops Laureate Conductor, John Williams, wrote a new work for Mr. Zaretsky – Duo Concertante for Violin and Viola – and dedicated it to him.

We are very fortunate to be able to bring Michael Zaretsky to Temple Emanuel. Please join us for this very special musical afternoon, including a festive post-performance reception to meet the artists. Tickets may be purchased in advance or at the door - regular admission: $15 ($20 at the door); adults over 70: $10 ($15 at the door); and children under 13: $10. There is no reserved seating.

For information and tickets: www.templemanuel.com or call 617-965-2468 or email arlynschneider@yahoo.com.