VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Please join the JF&CS professional volunteer corps.

CURRENT OPPORTUNITIES INCLUDE:

Licensed Attorney

Bet Tzedek, the legal services program of JF&CS, is seeking experienced, licensed attorneys to provide pro bono services in the following areas: family law, consumer law, immigration, bankruptcy, and housing.

Research and Project Developer

The JF&CS Geriatric Institute, an incubator for projects that translate research into practice, would welcome the involvement of a volunteer who has experience with conducting literature searches and writing literature reviews and who has access to academic library databases.

Case Manager

The Center for Family Assistance of JF&CS provides a comprehensive set of services for low-income individuals and families experiencing financial difficulties. The case manager will assess client's needs and eligibility through a screening and intake process and provide an array of services through telephone and face-to-face interviews.

Registered Dietitian

JF&CS Nutrition Services is seeking a licensed, registered dietitian to provide a series of four trainings over the course of one year to our staff who work in our disabilities residences.

Researcher and Analyst

The JF&CS Quality Improvement department is looking for volunteers with any of the following skills: basic research experience in the social sciences, either as an undergrad or grad; survey development or running focus groups that generate feedback from our clients and other stakeholders; comfort using the internet, Microsoft Excel, and Word.
